

Ruben V. Aghuzumtsyan is an Armenian psychologist, PhD in Psychology (1975), professor, the Acting Member of Engineering Academy of Armenia, head of the Laboratory of Personal and Professional Activity Psychology at the Yerevan State University. Scientific director of scientific research laboratory «Psychology of Management Activity», Public Administration Academy of the Republic of Armenia. Editor in chief of 15 scientific collections. Chairman of «Psychologists' Association of Armenia»; member of Armenian collective management body, The National Bureau of Expertise; member of the editorial board of «Public administration» monthly of Public Administration Academy of RA. Ruben V. Aghuzumtsyan developed and implemented psychological training programs on conflict solving, personal growth/development, achievement motivation, emotional stability, communicational styles and skills, psychology of management; took part in negotiation process of settlement of conflict of Nagorno Karabakh held in Switzerland. He is the author of more than 190 scientific publications on the different problems of engineering psychology, cognitive processes, management psychology, career psychology, psychology of law.

You can contact him by: rvaghuzumtsyan@list.ru