

Dr. Alexander Vladimirovich KOVRIGA is the head of Interdisciplinary Research & Design Laboratory at Kuban State University

Born: December 09, 1959. Kuban, Russia.

Dr. Kovriga specialized in the field of knowledge economy, urban and university's ecosystems development and management capacity building.

Education:

Architecture & Urban Planning. Master's degree Odessa Engineering and Construction Institute. 1977–1982. PhD course from the same University. 1985.

Doctoral Degree in Economics Kharkov State Academy of Municipal Economy. 1996

Master of Management Education, University of Aix-Marseille-III (France). 1997.

Positions held:

Director Center for Interdisciplinary Social Forecasting, Karazin National University. Kharkov, Ukraine 2012 – 2017

Head of the Education & Science Department of the Office of the President of Ukraine.

Leading Scholar at National Institute of Strategic Studies.

Director of the International Center for Economic Development Research & Management Capacity Building

Head of the Research Laboratory on Problems of Higher Education.

Senior Architect at major Urban Design Institute (Ukrgorstrojproject).

Major Academic awards: Scholarship European Foundation for Management Development. 1994-96;

Senior Fulbright Scholarship at University of California, Berkeley. 1999–00; Distinguished International Scholar of University of Rhode Island. 2011.

Published more than 55 papers and chapters in monographs in national and international academic and professional journals.

He can be reached at alex.kovryga59@gmail.com